A Camp of College Professors at Lake Memphremagog.

Col. C. S. Emery escorted a delegation of college professors—representing various educational institutions all over the United States—through Lake Memphremagog recently, showing the camping and outing advantages of Whetstone Island (the recently acquired property of the Memphremagog Yacht club) and many other of the numerous beauty spots. Now, that's just the class of people we should encourage to make this region their regular summer rendezvous and we have to thank Col. Emery for taking the proper initiatory course in courteously introducing them to a section of Mother Nature which they certainly haven't seen excelled, nor possibly duplicated, in grandeur anywhere in America. Now it's up to the citizens of Newport to take whatever further steps necessary to induce the college people to come to Lake Memphremagog.

A Gypsy Raid.

A band of gypsies to the number of nearly a score passed through here last Thursday. They tried to camp down near Indian Point, but, not being wanted they passed on east. At Charleston they tried their fortune-telling allurement upon Mr. Woodard, an old war veteran, and by light-fingered tactics operated upon him in his own house, then extracted $25.00 from his person. This lawlessness was reported to Sheriff Hill at Newport, and he in company with A. H. Groat, state's attorney, started on the gypsies' trail, which led through Brighton and Newark with a round-up at Albany; where not only Mr. Woodard's $25.00 was secured, but also cash that had been inveigled from other parties. Some of the band were inclined to be stubborn in the matter, but the determination shown by the sheriff and his deputies, brought the sharpers to time. They are evidently not the same band of gypsies that have encamped in our vicinity in past years as this year's crop claim to hail from Brazil and do not "swap" horses; probably because each of the 17 animals they drive are thoroughbreds and circus-trained.

Newport high school baseball team won from Barton academy on the local field Saturday in a very closely contested game, there being a difference of but one point in the score.

Quite a hard frost Wednesday night outside of the village, and a genuine freeze Thursday and Friday nights. In many sections there was a hard hail storm Friday, and Saturday the air was full of snow. In some sections the fruit trees are blighted and foliage shriveled.

Capt. Holbrook made the second trip to Newport with his steamer Yocco Monday. He reports that the Canadian steamer, Anthemis, expects to make its first trip of the season to this port during the present week; but for a mishap in falling from its "slip" in launching from winter quarters, it would have visited us two weeks earlier.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Reading Circle was held at the home of Mrs. G. H. Newland last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Nettie Cunningham was re-elected president; Mrs. Helen Thompson, vice president; Mrs. Helena Drew, secretary-treasurer. The hostess served refreshments. The Circle have closed a very successful and helpful season.

The Junior Ball.

The Junior class of Newport high school gave a very successful third annual ball at School hall Friday evening. The large crowd of guests were received by the patronesses: Mrs. E. S. Watson, Mrs. F. E. Alfred, Mrs. G. B. Young, Mrs. E. J. Prouty, Mrs. W. R. Prouty, Mrs. G. H. Root, Mrs. D. N. Dwinell, Mrs. C. A. Davis, Mrs. H. F. Hamilton, Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, Mrs. C. F. Bigelow, Mrs. C. A. Emery, and Mrs. C. L. M. Bugbee. Turcott's orchestra was ensconced within an artistic bower of evergreens with a gate opening, over which the various dances were announced by printed card. The grand march started at about nine o'clock, led by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bigelow. The regular program of 16 dances and four "extras" lasted until about two o'clock. Dainty refreshments of sherbet and fancy cookies were pleasantly served by a bevy of young misses. The following students compose the class of 1914: Reginald Buzzell, president; Glenn Alexander, Sherburne Bailey, Mildred Bell, Albert Caplan, Ruth Clough, Donald Davis, Harlow Drown, Harold Flint, Helen Foster, Percy Foster, Hazel Gates, Roxie George, Mildred Joslyn, Warner Keith, Urban Livingston, Everett and Gaylor McCullough and Chester Mooney. Mildred Bell, Urban Livingston and Gaylor McCullough were the executive committee.

St. Mark's Episcopal Mission Likely to Become a Parish.

The annual vestry meeting of St. Mark's Episcopal church was held last week Monday evening. The old board of officers was re-elected, namely: N. V. Jones, warden; Walter Abbott, secretary; J. R. Kirkpatrick, treasurer. The delegates to the annual diocesan convention to be held in Barre, June 18, were elected as follows: C. V. Slater, J. R. Kirkpatrick and Walter Abbott; with N. V. Jones Mr. Buck, and Henry Burgess as alternates. The reports from the treasurers of the different societies connected with the church, showed St. Mark's to be cleared from indebtedness, with credit balance. There was some discussion regarding the advisability of petitioning the convention to raise St. Mark's from a mission to a parish. Under the very practical two years' pastorate of Rev. J. C. McCullough, the church has experienced a healthy growth and many feel that the time is ripe for making it an independent parish. An adjourned vestry meeting was held Monday evening of this week to further discuss the question and give necessary instructions to the delegates. At the adjourned vestry meeting Monday evening the members present voted that they should declare the church a parish instead of a mission, in the delegation's report to the diocesan convention. The election of officers and delegates held the evening of May 5th, was ratified, with the addition of the following new officers: Junior warden, Henry Burgess; St. Mark's men, J. R. Kirkpatrick, Henry Burgess, Walter Abbott, N. V. Jones and Mr. Buck.

Clinton A. Day started last week for San Francisco, Cal., as representative from Loyal lodge, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, at the National convention of that body, and expects to be absent until about June 15. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Canty, M. F. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Massey also take the trip as visitors of the convention. They left via Boston Sunday.

Work of repairs, in getting the iron steamer, "Lady of the Lake," in readiness for summer navigation, began this week. She will begin her trips the latter part of June when the Boston & Maine railroad put on their summer trains. It is expected that Capt. C. C. Bullock will manage the boat again the coming season. He was in town last week in conference with officials of the road regarding getting the steamer in readiness.

Several Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from here are attending the Grand Lodge which convened at Burlington yesterday. Past Grand A. T. Stevens, B. C. Young, D. R. Stetson and T. W. Lynch are the representatives and alternates from Evening Star Lodge. C. W. Young, H. F. Young and E. E. Jenne go from Frontier Encampment. W. R. Magoon, Mrs. Joel Bly, Maggie Porter, Mrs. E. E. Jenne, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. MacArthur, Mrs. Attie Leavens and Miss Muriel Wells attend from Morning Star Rebekah Lodge, leaving here this morning.

WHAT TELEPHONE SERVICE MEANS

The usefulness of telephone service is conceded. Only two questions remain to be determined by the prospective subscriber, namely; "Can I afford it?" and "Is the service of standard quality?"

As to the first, each person must be the judge of his financial ability. We believe he will have to hunt hard to find any other investment that yields such large returns for the money expended.

As to the second question, we can speak with positiveness. During the last two years we have spent about $100,000 in Orleans and Caledonia counties, rebuilding lines, installing new switchboards, replacing grounded lines with metallic circuits, and extending our plant. We have at the present time one hundred and thirty-five people on our payroll, of whom sixty-eight are in the operating department and fifty-five in the construction force.

We have greatly improved the condition of our plant and propose to continue these improvements as rapidly as possible. We have tried to keep step with the march of progress, and think we have done so, not merely in preparedness to serve, but in the quality of the service actually rendered.

Metallic circuits in place of grounded lines have eliminated the annoying "cross talk" of which so many complained, thus giving a quality of service much more satisfactory than that of the past.

Confident that these statements will stand the test of fair analysis, we invite the patronage of the public in Barton and vicinity at the following rates.
